

Looking at Sinclair's partisan tactics right before the election to force member stations to broadcast their "news" about John Kerry leads one to wonder if our senators and representatives got what they expected. Did you expect a monopoly that controls the people's airways to be anything but partisan? Is this freedom of speech or propaganda? Ask yourself, will I vote for you next time up?